

CIA Officer Clinkscale Dead at 49

Henry C. Clinkscale, 49, a personnel officer in the Central Intelligence Agency, died Wednesday in Doctors Hospital after a heart attack.

A native of the Washington area, Mr. Clinkscale has held several positions in the CIA's office of personnel since joining it in 1947.

Before that, he had worked for several other government agencies, including the Veterans Administration, the Railroad Retirement Board and the War Production Board.

In the Army from 1943 to 1946, Mr. Clinkscale served in personnel and administrative positions in the U. S. and the Pacific area.

He was a graduate of the old Alexandria High School and a member of the Old Dominion Boat Club.

Surviving are his wife, Helen M., of the home address, 6320 Highland st., Alexandria.